

VINITA, INDIAN TERRITORY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1887

NEWS OF THE WEEK

THE new South American Republic between Brazil and French Guiana has a population of only seven hundred and a coast line of less than two hundred miles. The resources of the country consist of agricultural products, minerals, timber and cocoa, thirty-five thousand dollars' worth of which is annually exported. India rubber, cotton, macaparailla, tobacco, vanilla, coffee, maize, rice, potatoes, dates, guavae, pineapples, oranges, lemons, etc. Breeding horses, cattle and sheep is also very profitable. A line of vessels will be run between Couman and Cayenne on one hand, and Para, Brazil, on the other.

Fire broke out in a bakery in Sanford Fla., the other day and destroyed almost the entire business portion of the town. The estimated loss is $300,000, with no insurance.

The schooner Orkney Lass was thought to have been lost in Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron. The captain refused assistance from the coast guard and the vessel was not afterward seen.

Business failures during the seven days ended September 23 numbered for the United States, 150; Canada, 27; total, 183; compared with 167 in the previous week and 181 the corresponding week of 1913.

ELENA A. ROBINSON, the Chicago white label grocer who stood in with the Cool County boys, has returned to the county $2,000 as his share of the steal.

JOHN J. HARRIS, English-born brewer and distillery, Juliet, Ill., has been destroyed by fire with all his contents. Loss, $50,000.

The deadly race war was threatened in Dallas County, Tex., between white and colored men. A white man was killed and the killing of a colored constable who attempted the arrest of a white man.

The total assets of the insolvent Columbia Bank of Philadelphia, according to the report of the receiver, are $1,000,000. Doubtful assets, consisting of notes, bad mortgages, etc., of the face value of $375,000, are valued at $5,750.

The International Cigar-makers' Union has elected H. P. Brassier, of Buffalo, N. Y., president. H. P. Brassier was elected treasurer. A magnificent govt. arch and chain was presented to Mr. Brassier.

Over $100,000 worth of silks, laces and other dress goods were seized in the New York customs house. It was thought to belong to a dressmaker named Kennedy. The goods had been skillfully sewed into of his bonds aggregating $45,000. He gave as his reason that in case the American should blow up the jet and the remains of Vanreelit and Varnell not be found then the State's Attorney might insist he had smuggled them into Canada and have his bonds forfeited.

—He (whisperingly)—"I noticed DeWiggins, that you seemed very during my bass solo." She (drawly)—"Yes, your singing always make me think of a dear friend who I named for a playing short-stop." Springfield Republican.

—"Does Mr. Stirling live here?" asked a mechanic of a woman he met at the door. "Yes, sir." "I'll come down to clean out his furnace."

and his wife, George Evans, who was hanged here July 27 by a negro mob, who were infuriated by the fact that the white man had killed one of their number because he had killed one of their number.

***

Children Killed.

QUEBEC, Sept. 16.—A shocking affair has just been reported from the Island Orleans. For some little time past the father of the family of P. Goodhart, a farmer living close to the camping ground where the Doukhin Artillery Association held its annual competition a few weeks ago, was wont to slip up pieces of dynamite which they came across as large shells, which undoubtedly had not exploded after being fired. Their curiosity being aroused, they set to work to dissect the fuse, and apply a lighted match, the result being that they exploded the fuse, and killed their youngest and injuring the fourth son seriously, so that his life is despaired of. The mother

Sensational Eklopmont.
LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Sept. 23.—The position yesterday that Miss Hershah Baugmore was a respectable young woman before, had eloped with a young commercial traveler, was correct. His name, H. Baugmore, and he represents a large dry house in St. Louis. His past record is well known. He lives in Syracuse, N. Y., and Miss Hershah Baugmore is a young girl, some nineteen years of age, and it was some six weeks ago that she was found in a state of love at first sight. Her friends sought the permission of Miss Hershah's parents for marriage, but both the father and mother refused. He would not marry her until he had secured their daughter if he had to elope with her. Wednesday evening they left Leavenworth.

It was the intent of Mr. Pierce to bribe." The report proceeds at length to set forth the temptations which were used to induce the debasing work employed by professional lobbyists.

Over the Line.

TOLSON, O., Sept. 9.—Homer Overmyer, western agricultural writer, of Boulder, Colo., has been indicted by the grand jury of Oakland, O., at C. A. Keenan, U. S. district attorney, for conspiracy to defraud the Keady Electric Company, of Michigan, has joined the American colony in Canada. Several Overmyer associates, of whom the grand jury indicted the Keady Electric Company, belonging to the Keady Electric Company, which was organized to produce what money he could on stock exchanges, and has since been missing. Overmyer was left by his family, home, and property in the hands of his wife, who was supposed to be on the road with him. Overmyer was last seen in the city of Detroit, where he was seen by Mrs. Overmyer, who received a letter from her husband dated Canada, in which

The Colored Line in Ohio.
CINCINNATI, Jan. 22.—The open season for the law of last winter, which forbids the state statute authorizing the establishment of separate schools for colored pupils, is closing in many places. The colored pupils nearly all desisted from their own schools, and returned to the white school. A public meeting and the school board was ordered the colored pupils to their own schools. They complied, and the colored pupils returned to their schools. The school board of the Springs the action board had ordered the colored pupils to their schools. They complied, and the colored pupils returned to their schools. The school board of the Springs the action board had ordered the colored pupils to their schools. They complied, and the colored pupils returned to their schools.